

Overview	The OCR A Level in Law content focuses on the English legal system and areas of both private and public law within the law of England and Wales. Learners will be required to show knowledge and understanding of the nature of law and the English legal system. This will provide learners with the foundation for the study of both private and public law. This specification will develop learners' understanding of legal method and reasoning through the study of statutory interpretation and judicial precedent. Learners will be introduced to the concept of legal liability through the study of criminal law and the law of tort. This will enable them to develop and apply the techniques of legal method and reasoning to analyse and offer answers to legal problems, based on legal rules and principles and develop the ability to construct and communicate legal arguments by reference to appropriate legal authorities. The A Level in Law will develop learners' knowledge of law through advanced study of an additional legal subject human rights law or the law of contract. They will develop their critical awareness of the law through the study of the nature of law. The English legal system and the nature of law is split into three sections: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>■ The legal system and Criminal Law</li> <li>■ Law making and Tort</li> <li>■ The nature of law and Human Rights</li> </ul>
